The airfield is situated approximately 2 km. north of the town and occupies an area of approximately 1,500 by 900 m, extending north - south. It is surrounded by ploughed fields, which mark the boundary (there is no fence). The airfield has no concrete runway; the surface is of grass. On the southwest corner of the airfield there is a two-story building (20 by 5 m) with an aerial beside it. On the south side of the airfield there is a hangar (50 by 50 by 10 m). No troops were noticed on the airfield, and no aircraft apart from one single-engined monoplane which was seen towing a glider into the air. During four hours of observation, this operation was repeated four times.
